- 2.1 These Conditions of Use, and the Rabobank VISA Debit Card Conditions of Use, the Rabobank Internet Banking Conditions of Use, the Fees Schedule and any Line of Credit Contract, set out our agreement with you about the Account. We advise you to read all of the terms and conditions applicable to your All In One Account.
- 2.2 If there is an inconsistency between any of the terms of our agreement with you, then the Rabobank VISA Debit Card Conditions of Use, the Rabobank Internet Banking Conditions of Use or the Line of Credit Contract will prevail over these Conditions of Use to the extent of the inconsistency.
- 2.3 These Conditions of Use do not limit or exclude any of our rights, or any of your rights, under the general law or under banking custom or practice, except where those rights are inconsistent with these Conditions of Use. However, these Conditions of Use are subject to any non-excludable condition imposed by law to the extent of any inconsistency.
- 2.4 You agree to be responsible for the conduct of Authorised Signatories, including any debts they might incur. If you wish to revoke their authority to operate on the Account, you must tell us in writing.
- 2.5 Unless we agree otherwise, you warrant that the Account is wholly or predominantly for business and not personal use.
- 2.6 If a transaction or instruction from you or us falls outside Rabobank's processing times, we may process the transaction or instruction on the preceding or following Business Day. Please refer to our Website for processing cut-off times.
- 2.7 If you are required to make a payment under any Line of Credit Contract on the 29th, 30th or 31st of a month and a particular month does not contain such a date, that payment must be made on the preceding Business Day.
- 2.8 If our agreement with you about the Account requires that something will or must be done (including making a payment where clause 2.7 does not apply) on or by a particular day and that day is not a Business Day, that thing will or must be done on or by the next Business Day.

3. Accounts in two or more names

- 3.1 If the Account is owned by two or more people:
 - These Conditions of Use bind each of you separately as well as together;
 - Each of you individually may, subject to clause 3.2 and 3.3, give us instructions on any matter relating to the Account other than to close the Account;
 - We may pay any credit balance of the Account to any of you;
 - We may deliver to any of you any documents, deeds or items which we hold;
 - Where one owner dies, the survivor(s) will own and continue to operate the Account (subject to certain exceptions for partnership or trust accounts); and
 - You are jointly and severally liable for all debts incurred on the Account.
- 3.2 You must advise Rabobank in writing how the Account is to be operated and instructions may be varied in writing. However, any one of you may instruct us in writing to change the signing rules when increasing the number of authorised signatories required to authorise each payment or transaction related instruction. For example, you may require that two Account Owners or Authorised Signatories approve each payment or transaction related instruction instead of just one. This change will apply to all accounts held in the same name as the Account.
- 3.3 You can advise us to change the authority so that all owners of the Account must approve future withdrawals.

- 3.4 If we become aware of any dispute between:
 - account owners (or between attorneys and/or administrators acting on behalf of an account owner, and an account owner); or
 - directors of an account owner,we may block access to the account or block certain transactions on the account.
- 3.5 If we block an account under clause 3.4:
 - we may decide to permit certain operations on the account if all account owners, or all directors, authorise such operations; or
 - subject to clause 3.3 (if applicable), we may allow for limited payments in line with an account owner's established payment patterns if it is clearly required for them to meet their essential living and business expenses.
- 3.6 Where reasonable and to the extent permitted by law, if we block an account under clause 3.4 we will inform all account owners.

4. Operating your account

- 4.1 You must conduct the Account in accordance with these Conditions of Use.
- 4.2 Proceeds of cheques are not available until cleared. Clearance usually takes 5 Business Days.
- 4.3 We may require you to satisfy us as to your identity. We may refuse to act on any instructions which we reasonably consider may be invalid. We will act on instructions sent by you by Electronic Means unless we are on notice that the Electronic Instructions may be invalid.
- 4.4 We may refuse to authorise a transaction if we believe it is reasonably necessary for security purposes, we suspect fraudulent use of or access to your Account, you fail to comply with any material requirement of these Conditions of Use or we consider it reasonably necessary for compliance with anti-money laundering obligations.
- 4.5 If there is no Line of Credit, by prior agreement with us you may overdraw the Account for a period of no more than 62 days. You must pay debit interest on the overdrawn amount as set out in clause 7.2. Any such overdraw will also be subject to any other terms we agree with you at that time. If there is no such agreement and clause 10.2 does not apply, you must not overdraw the Account. If there is a Line of Credit, the Line of Credit Contract applies to all debit balances of the Account.
- 4.6 We may provide you with a statement which states the amount you owe us on this Account, or which states anything else about the Account.
- 4.7 We may monitor and/or record telephone conversations for verification purposes.
- 4.8 If we give you access to any funds prior to them being cleared, and the funds are not subsequently cleared, we will debit the Account with the amount of those funds e.g. cheques.
- 4.9 You agree that we are not liable for any loss, cost or damage you suffer and you will indemnify us against any loss, cost, expense or damage we suffer as a result of:
 - (i) you acting negligently or fraudulently in connection with the operation of the Account or the sending of instructions by Electronic Means; or
 - (ii) us acting in good faith on your instructions (including instructions by Electronic Means) except to the extent this involves fraud, negligence or wilful misconduct by us or our employees, officers, contractors, agents, appointed receivers or parties involved in the provision of services relating to the Account.We may, upon giving you advance written notice, debit to the Account any amount you owe us under this indemnity.
- 4.10 You may make payments to the Account by direct credit or in any other manner acceptable to us. Payments will only be credited to the Account upon actual receipt by us of the funds in Sydney.

- 4.11 You must ensure you have sufficient Available Funds in your account to make payments. We may, from time to time, process a payment in excess of the Available Funds, but this will not always be the case and you should not expect that this will always take place. If we do so, you must pay debit interest on any amount in excess of the Available Funds as set out in clause 7.2 and the Fees Schedule. If there is a Line of Credit, the applicable fees and interest are set out in the Line of Credit Contract.
- 4.12 We will accept instructions in relation to your Account from an Authorised Signatory where you have signed an authority acceptable to us (such as, without limitation, an Account Operating Authority or 'AIO Credit Only Application' form) that permits that Authorised Signatory to do so on your behalf.
- 4.13 If you wish to revoke the Authorised Signatory's authority to operate on the Account, you must notify us in writing. Unless we have received a written revocation of authority, we will assume that the Authorised Signatory is authorised to operate your Account and/or give us instructions on your behalf. Please note that if an Account with no Line of Credit (ie an 'AIO (Credit Only)') is updated so that a Line of Credit is made available, this will not automatically revoke or change any authorities of account signatories (including for Authorised Signatories).

5. Methods of serving a notice

- 5.1 In addition to effecting service as permitted by law, any statement, demand or notice to you may be validly served by:
- being delivered or sent to the address or email address nominated by the owner(s) of the Account in writing; or
 - making the information available at our Website for retrieval by you and notifying you by electronic communication to your electronic address (or any other electronic address you notify us from time to time) that the information is available for retrieval (and the nature of the information) and providing you with the ability readily to retrieve the information by electronic communication (for example by providing a link to the relevant information on our Website).
- 5.2 All written notices to us must be sent to the address on the All In One application form or as subsequently notified to you.
- 5.3 Subject to any other specific provision, service pursuant to this clause is taken to be effected:
- where sent by post, upon the earliest of actual receipt, the day when the addressee would have received the item in the ordinary course of post, or 10 Business Days after posting;
 - where sent by facsimile or by email, when the machine or system respectively from which it was sent indicates that it was sent successfully, or where delivered, upon actual delivery, except where sent/delivered after 4.30 pm or on a day which is not a Business Day, in which case service is taken to be effected on the next Business Day.

6. Statements

- 6.1 We will provide you account statements monthly.
- 6.2 You must check your account statement and let us know as soon as possible if you want to question an entry shown on it by calling 1800 025 484.
- 6.3 If you are in default under the contract relating to the Account, we will give you a statement of account or alternative (for example a transaction history) if you ask for it.

7. Interest

- 7.1 We will pay a variable rate of interest on any credit funds held in the Account. Our rates may at any time and at our sole discretion vary, sometimes daily, either by way of increase or decrease, conforming with general movements in Rabobank's annual percentage rates. The current rates, and also past rates and ranges of rates, are available on request from client services, by telephoning 1800 025 484 or on our website at www.rabobank.com.au. Different credit rates of interest may apply, depending on the amount of credit funds. Interest is calculated daily by applying the applicable daily interest rate to the relevant portion of the credit balance of the Account at the end of each day. The daily interest rate is the relevant interest rate divided by 365. The sum of all such amounts for the relevant period is credited to the Account monthly in arrears on the last day of each month and on closure of the Account. However, if there is a Line of Credit, it will be credited on each Interest Payment Date and on closure of the Account. Interest is accrued from the first date on which the Account has a credit balance or the date of the last interest payment, up to but not including the date of the next interest payment, withdrawal of all the credit funds or closure of the Account.

- 7.2 Interest on any debit balances, including overdrawings, is determined by the Line of Credit Contract or the agreement referred to in clause 4.5, as applicable. Our base interest rates on debit balances (including the Applicable Base Rates as defined in the Line of Credit Contract, but excluding any rate that is fixed) may at any time and at our sole discretion vary, sometimes daily either by way of increase or decrease, conforming with general movements in Rabobank's annual percentage rates. Current base rates, and also past rates and ranges of rates are available on request from any of our branches or by telephoning 1800 025 484. Interest on an overdrawn referred to in clause 4.11 or 10.2, if not covered by such a Line of Credit Contract or agreement referred to in clause 4.5, or any other overdrawn or debit balance not covered by such a Contract or agreement referred to in clause 4.5, is calculated daily by applying the daily interest rate to the daily debit balance of the Account at the end of each day. The daily interest rate is the applicable interest rate divided by 365. The sum of all such amounts for the relevant period is debited to the Account monthly in arrears on the last day of each month and immediately before closure of the Account. The rate of such interest is set out in the Fees Schedule.

8. Other payment facilities

- 8.1 Automated Periodical Direct Debit
- You may authorise another person to debit the Account (direct debit user) for payment of services. The direct debit user must provide us with documentation satisfactory to us of your authorisation.

9. Stopping payments

- 9.1 A Direct Debit
- If you have authorised a direct debit user to debit the Account and you want to stop this arrangement, you may contact either the direct debit user or us. Provided that you give us full written details of the direct debit arrangement, including the name of the direct debit user, and, if applicable, the due date and amount, we will promptly process your request. If you contact us, we also suggest that you contact the direct debit user and notify them of your action.
- 9.2 An Automated Periodical Payment
- If you have authorised us to make regular automatic payments from the Account and you want to stop these payments, you must provide written instructions to us at least 3 Business Days before the next payment is scheduled to be made. We will need full details of the Account and of the payment (amount, when next due, payee).

10. Rabobank Visa Debit Card

- 10.1 If we issue a Rabobank VISA Debit Card to you for use on the Account, this clause 10 applies together with the Rabobank VISA Debit Card Conditions of Use which we issue to you at the time we send you your Rabobank VISA Debit Card.
- 10.2 Use of the Rabobank VISA Debit Card can, in some cases, involve a short term deferral of a debt. This may result in the Account being overdrawn for a period, which period must not exceed 62 days.
- 10.3 If we accept your request to issue a subsidiary card to an Authorised Signatory, you will be responsible for giving the Authorised Signatory a copy of the Rabobank VISA Debit Card Conditions of Use and for the use of that Card by the Authorised Signatory, including for debts incurred by using it on your Account, as if it were your Card. You should provide any such Authorised Signatory with a copy of the Visa Debit Card – Conditions of Use and advise them to comply with those Conditions of Use.
- 10.4 You can request to cancel a subsidiary Card by giving written notice to Rabobank. However, you remain liable for any debt that the subsidiary cardholder incurs until Rabobank processes the request to cancel the subsidiary Card. You will not be liable for the continuing use of a subsidiary Card after the date Rabobank has processed the request to cancel the subsidiary Card.

11. Rabobank internet banking

If we allow you to access the Account via Rabobank Internet Banking, the Rabobank Internet Banking Conditions of Use apply. You will be given these when you first log on to Rabobank Internet Banking.

12. Combination of accounts and set-off

- 12.1 In certain circumstances, where reasonable, we may combine all or any of your accounts held with us or our related entities. If we combine accounts, we will apply some or all credit funds against some or all of the debt you owe us; and there will be only a single amount either we owe you or you owe us.
- 12.2 We may also exercise our right to set-off, which means we may apply some or all credit funds in all or any of your accounts held with us or our related entities against debts which you owe us that are due and payable.
- 12.3 If we exercise our rights under this clause, we will promptly notify you.

13. Fees

- 13.1 We may debit to the Account all or any of our standard fees and charges and any Government Charges applicable to the Account when they become payable. For further details of current Government Charges, contact us free on 1800 025 484.
- 13.2 The Bank's standard fees include (but are not limited to):
- fees for some transactions which you conduct on the Account; and
 - fees for certain other services which we provide.
- Our standard fees and charges are set out in the Fees Schedule, which is available on request. You may obtain a copy of the Fees Schedule at any branch.

14. Breach of Conditions of Use

If you breach a material requirement of these Conditions of Use and you fail to remedy such breach (where the breach is capable of remedy) after receiving a notice from us to do so, our rights include doing any or all of the following:

- closing the Account in accordance with the provisions of clause 15 (except where you have a Line of Credit, in which case we will act in accordance with the Line of Credit Contract);

- cancelling any Card and require its return in accordance with the Visa Debit Card Conditions of Use; and/or
- terminating access to the Account via Rabobank Internet Banking in accordance with the Rabobank Internet Banking Conditions of Use.

15. Blocking and closure of the account

- 15.1 If you wish to close the Account, you must give us written notice. You must pay any amounts you owe us under the Account. If the Account is a joint Account we will need instructions from you and the other joint Account Owner or Owners before closing the Account.
- 15.2 Rabobank has the right to close, or block access to, any account:
- (i) it is no longer lawfully possible for us to provide an Account to you;
 - (ii) subject to clause 14, you have committed a material breach of these Conditions of Use;
 - (iii) we consider that your account is "inactive" i.e. you have not made a deposit into, or withdrawal from, the account within the previous 12 months, and the balance is less than $1,000 (you can contact us if you wish to keep your account open);
 - (iv) we have assessed you as being a recalcitrant account holder (including if you are "recalcitrant" within the meaning of any set out in the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act and the Common Reporting Standards);
 - (v) we reasonably believe it necessary to prevent fraud, scams, mule account activity (which means activity relating to an account indicating that the account may be used to process money linked to criminal activity) or financial loss to us or you arising from the misuse or unauthorised use of the Account or our banking services;
 - (vi) you are involved in or convicted of criminal activity and we, in our reasonable opinion, consider such an involvement or conviction may adversely impact Rabobank's reputation;
 - (vii) you have transmitted content, including via any payment method (for example, text in payment descriptions), which in our reasonable opinion is inappropriate, including content which:
 - uses crude, disrespectful or insulting language;
 - is discriminatory, defamatory or otherwise unlawful;
 - threatens or promotes physical violence;
 - threatens or promotes psychological violence or mental harm; or
 - is intimidating, threatening, abusive or harassing in nature.
 - (viii) you do not provide us with any document or information we reasonably request from you;
 - (ix) we consider it necessary to comply with Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country) or to comply with our regulator and compliance obligations and manage associated risk; or
 - (x) we consider it necessary, in our reasonable opinion, in order to protect our legitimate business interests.

If you have a Line of Credit, any right of Rabobank to close the Account is subject to the applicable Rabobank All In One Standard Line of Credit Terms (including clause M of the Rabobank All In One Standard Line of Credit Terms specifying when payment of any debit balance may be demanded by Rabobank).

- 15.3 If we block or close an account under clause 15.2, we will provide you with 30 days prior notice where reasonable in the circumstances and to the extent permitted by law. In some circumstances we may block or close an account without providing you with any prior notice if we reasonably believe immediate action is necessary to protect us or you from suffering financial loss (for example, to manage a risk of the kind described at clause 15.2). If we close the Account without prior notice to you, we will provide you with written notice as soon as reasonably possible after the action has been taken.

If the Account has a debit balance, we will comply with the Line of Credit Contract or the agreement referred to in clause 4.5, as applicable. If the Account has an overdrawn or debit balance not covered by a Line of Credit Contract or other agreement, you must pay to us the amount of that debit balance.

15.4 Following notification of closure of the Account, we will continue to debit to the Account fees (as disclosed to you from time to time), Government Charges and interest during the period up to closure of the Account. We may continue to debit to the Account any transactions incurred by you on the Account.

15.5 If we suspend or close an Account of yours that is in credit:

- (i) if legally permitted, we will transfer your credit balance to an account nominated by you;
- (ii) we may not transfer the credit balance to you if we reasonably believe that a regulatory or other legal obligation or reason (such as to comply with a court order or we reasonably believe the funds are not yours) prevents us from doing so or to manage associated risk;
- (iii) we may transfer some or all of the credit balance to another financial institution or genuine claimant where we receive notice from that institution or claimant that the funds belong to a bona fide third party in relation to a matter of the kind described in clause 15.2(v), 15.2(vi), or 15.2(ix) and we reasonably believe the request or claim is legitimate;
- (iv) if we are unable to transfer your credit balance to an account nominated by you and we cannot obtain instructions from you, or we are otherwise of the reasonable belief there is a basis set out in subclause (ii) to not transfer the credit balance to you and have not otherwise transferred funds to a bona fide third party under subclause (iii), we may transfer the balance to a suspense account, and ultimately to the Commonwealth Government as unclaimed money where permitted or required by applicable laws; and
- (v) we may charge you an amount that is our reasonable estimate of the costs of closure (we will advise you if there is such a fee).

15.6 If an account has an overdrawn or debit balance you must pay to us the amount of that debit balance.

16. Variations to terms and conditions

16.1 Acting reasonably, we can change these Conditions of Use at any time without your agreement for any one or more of the following reasons:

- to comply with any change or anticipated change in any relevant law, code, guidance or general banking practice;
- to reflect any decision of a court, ombudsman or regulator;
- if we consider it necessary for security reasons;
- to respond proportionately to changes in the cost of providing the Account (including by changing or imposing new fees);
- if we add new features or benefits to the Account;
- as a result of changed circumstances relating to the Account (e.g. changes in technology, or to our systems, or procedures);
- to correct errors; or
- to make the terms and conditions clearer.

16.2 Subject to 16.3, if we change the terms and conditions of the Account and this change is unfavourable, we will let you know of the change as soon as reasonably possible by giving a written notice to you. For all other changes we will let you know as soon as reasonably possible by:

- giving a written notice to you; or
- advertising in the media.

16.3 If we change an interest rate, we will tell you no later than the date of the change by advertising in the media or giving a written notice to you, unless an interest rate is calculated according to an external reference rate or a rate that is not designated as a variable or floating rate. This clause does not apply to a change in the method of calculating interest or the frequency with which interest is debited.

16.4 Apart from a change described at clause 16.3, if we believe a change is unfavourable to you, then we will give you prior reasonable notice (which will not be less than 30 days) subject to paragraph 16.5.

16.5 We may give you a shorter notice period than the period described in clause 16.4 if:

- we believe doing so is necessary for us to avoid, or to reduce, a material increase in our credit risk or our loss; or
- there is a change to, or introduction of a government charge that you pay directly, or indirectly, as part of your banking service. In such a case, we will tell you about the introduction or change reasonably promptly after the government notifies us (however, we do not have to tell you about it if the government publicises the introduction or change).

16.6 If you have a Line of Credit, we may also make changes to the Line of Credit Contract at a Loan Conditions Review, Loan Pricing Review or upon a Repricing Event, all as defined in the Rabobank All In One Standard Line of Credit Terms where such clauses are applicable to you.

16.7 If you do not wish to continue your facility as a result of a variation made under this clause 16, you may cancel your facility in accordance with clause 15.1.

17. General information on banking services

17.1 Unless otherwise stated in the Line of Credit Contract (also known as a 'Letter of Offer'), if any, connected with the Account, the relevant provisions of the Banking Code of Practice (available on the website of the Australian Banking Association) apply to the Account.

17.2 We will provide to you, if you request it, general descriptive information concerning banking services, including information on:

- (i) account opening procedures;
- (ii) our obligations regarding the confidentiality of your information;
- (iii) complaint handling procedures;
- (iv) the advisability of you informing us promptly when you are in financial difficulty; and
